News.—Gov. Walker, it will be seen, has left Kansas, bag and baggage, his career being over there.

The Welland Canal, and the Erie, at Buffalo, are frozen tight.

The Government, it is said, is about to order troops to Utah both from Oregon and California.

Some further particulars of the melancholy affair of the steamer Rainbow are given in our despatch.

The Election.

Nothing further yesterday as to Governor.—We repeat our figures of yesterday:

50 Counties official:

	Randall.		Cross.
	9,170		8,684
Reported:
Dunn,	113	Douglas,	117
		La Pointe,	40
	9,283		8,791

Burnett, a small county, in which there was probably no election, is the only county left.

RANDALL leads Cross 492, making his election sure, with the five disputed towns counted for Cross.

MACGRAW is elected over MCGARRY, for State Prison Commissioner, beyond doubt; and the figures below indicate HASTINGS' election for Treasurer over HABICH, so that, in spite of the most shameful apathy among the Republican voters, we have:

THE GOVERNOR.
THE TREASURER.
THE STATE PRISON COMMISSIONER.
AND BOTH HOUSES OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Hastings pretty certainly elected Treasurer.

Besides the Governor and State Prison Commissioner, it is now pretty well ascertained that Mr. HASTINGS, the Republican candidate for Treasurer, is also elected. The Madison Patriot states that the official votes from all the counties except Bad Ax, Door, Dunn, La Pointe, Shawano, and Winnebago, and Sheboygan, foot up for Treasurer as follows:

Habich	41,168
Hastings	40,537
Habich ahead,	629

We have three of the missing counties, and add them below:

	Hastings	Habich
Habich's majority as above,		629
Bad Ax	549	445
Sheboygan	226m
Winnebago	2069	1421
	2844	2495
Hastings ahead 349.

Supposing that Hastings runs with the ticket in the remaining counties, the vote would stand as follows, official and reported:

	Hastings	Habich
Door	1
Dunn	113
La Pointe		40
Shawano		45
	114	85

This would place Hastings 378 ahead, which is considerably beyond the reported majority for Habich in the disputed five towns for Habich, if they are counted. Hastings doubtless leads his ticket in Dunn Co. as he did in Trempealeau, so that we think can fairly claim his election.

Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM KANSAS.

GOV. WALKER LEAVES THE TERRITORY WITH HIS PARSONAL EFFECTS.

NO CALL FOR A SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

STEAMER COLLEBY, Missouri River, November 20, 1857.

The good steamer Oglesby is approaching Jefferson City, with a passenger list embracing Hon. Robert J. Walker, Hon. J. H. Stringfellow, Hon. Somebody, of South Carolina, and your correspondent. Our trip from Leavenworth has been delivered by sayings and incidents which will perhaps be of interest to the public:

Firstly, Gov. Walker came on board at Leavenworth, with the most remarkable lot of traveling apparatus ever seen on this thoroughfare. Among other portions of his outfit is his whole Kansas library, boxed and secured apparently for a long journey. In addition to this, he has about two dray loads of miscellaneous freight, comprising, I should say, all the movable property belonging to the Governor of Kansas. His Excellency has not been communicative on the subject of his early return to the Territory, whence his fellow-passengers have inferred that he does not anticipate returning at all. Navigation will have closed before he gets back from Washington, and the transportation of his freight by land from Jefferson to Lecompton will cost somebody ten dollars per hundred pounds—an expense which so shrewd a financier as the Governor would certainly not incur in a crisis like the present.

There is to be no special session of the Kansas Legislature. The Free State Territorial Committee met in Lawrence a few days before we left the Territory and appointed a Committee of their own number to wait upon the Governor and urge him to call such a session to take action concerning the monstrous proceedings at the Lecompton bogus Convention. This Committee divided itself into two embassies, one going to Lecompton and the other to Leavenworth. The Governor was found at the latter place, or rather, at an embryo town just outside of Leavenworth and just inside of the Fort Leavenworth Reservation. I am sorry to be obliged to record that the Committee found the Governor drunk. They waited till his Excellency had slept off his potations, and then communicated their business. The Governor said it was quite clear a special session ought to be called but he doubted his power to issue the call. He would examine the law and if he found it within the scope of his authority he would act in accordance with their suggestion. The Committee said they would remain in Leavenworth until the Governor could post himself up. They called the next day in season to learn the Governor had taken passage on the steamer Oglesby for St. Louis. So I am informed by a gentlemen who came on board just as the steamer shoved off.

The Anti-Wood Demonstration in New York.

GREAT MEETING IN WALL STREET.

The meeting held in Wall street, New York, in front of the Merchants' Exchange, on Friday afternoon to ratify the nomination of Mr. TIEMANN, for Mayor, was very large and enthusiastic Mr. Cooly, the nominee of the American party, for Mayor, presided, assisted by seventy-five Vice Presidents and ten Secretaries. Among the officers are a large number of Democrats—"Hard Shells," "Soft Shells," and some of the men of the Democratic party most eminent in N. Y. city politics, such as James Lee, ex-Judge Whiting, Wilson G Hunt, Henry Nicoll, Samuel Bradhurst, ex-Corporation Counsel Robert J. Dillon and others.

MR COOLEY'S SPEECH.

On taking the Chair, Mr. Cooley made a brief address:

He thanked his fellow citizens for the honor conferred upon him. They had met to consider the deplorable condition of their municipal affairs, and to join heart and hand to effect a reform.

The speaker then proceeded to review the deplorable condition of the city, instancing the many acts of lawlessness, murders, &c., which were daily perpetrated. These acts had been stimulated by a treacherous, cowardly, and a most unmitigated demagogue, occupying the post of Chief Magistrate. That Chief Magistrate, said Mr. Cooley, was capable of every conceivable enormity in the catalogue of crimes. (Cheers.)

"Such was the state of the city, then, and such the character of its rulers. To meet the crisis, the People have at length determined to take the government of the city into their own hands. (Applause.) They have put in the field a candidate of their own free choice, and without the aid of party machinery. Good men of all parties would rally to the support of that candidate.

The Americans had, particularly, resolved to sacrifice their party predilections, for the sake of the public good. His own, Mr. Cooley's, had been put forward for the office of Mayor, but in order to make sure and certain the purpose of the city, he would join with his friends in laboring to elect Mr. Tiemann.

By this means, there was every encouragement to believe that our city would be effectually cleansed from the corruption which now pollutes it. (Great applause.)

Resolutions endorsing Mr. Tieman's nomination, and denouncing the corrupt government of the city were passed.

THE WISCONSIN STATE DIRECTORY, 1857–8, in which the Mercantile, Manufacturing, Mechanical and Professional branches of business may be found, accurately compiled and alphabetically arranged for each city and town in the State, &c.; compiled by SMITH, DUNDLIN & Co.; STRICKLAND & Co., publishers; KING, JERMAIN & Co., printers.

The engraved title page, got up in handsome style by HICKOK, of this city, contains other details of the contents of this very valuable work, which we notice below. The basis of the work is a Business Directory, intended to give the name and residence of every person engaged in business on his own account within the limits of the State, alphabetically arranged as to name, residence and business, the latter divided into wholesale and retail, and the name of an individual often occurring several times, where his stock is not homogeneous. A little consideration will impress upon the mind the difficulties in the way of perfect accuracy in such a work, and he few who may happen to be omitted will appreciate this difficulty. Of course the compilers would rather be accurate than not. This business directory will prove of very great advantage in enabling merchants in this city to know where customers are to be looked for, and showing country dealers where to look for goods. We promise our readers some interesting facts drawn from the list, which comprises about 60,000 names.

Besides the Business Directory, and the numerous advertisements on colored paper, scattered through the book, the compilers give us nearly 200 pages of Historical and Statistical information, of a valuable nature. We notice the items in the order of the index:

Academical Institutions, Agricultural Society, Antiquities of the State; Banking Department; under this last head, the condition of the Banks is given for Nov. 2, 1857, at which date 74 banks were in operation, their reports showing the following figures:

The Report of the Board of Trade on the business of Milwaukee is given, and several pages to the Colleges, charitable institutions, and insurance companies of the state. Lists of Commissioners of Deeds in other states, and of some 4,000 Notaries in the state are given. The Constitution of the state, and the Courts, a chapter in the educational interests of Wisconsin, and a list of Masonic and Odd Fellows Lodges, follow.

Next we have a table giving the result of the Assessors' inquiries this year as to agricultural statistics, eighteen counties, (among which is Milwaukee, being delinquent in returns. The footings for 1856 are as follows:

The part of the work from which we have quoted contains further a geographical sketch of the State and description of counties, Governors of Wisconsin, Governors of all the States, population of principal towns, census of the State, Railroads and their earnings—sketches of towns—list of over 100 newspapers, &c., &c.

A very copious Index to the Business Directory, is furnished, properly classified.

The work altogether is a credit to the compilers, to the publishers, (who are also the binders,) and we may be permitted to add, to the printers, concerning whom the preface says:

"The typographical execution of the work, done at the Sentinel office, of which KING, JERMAIN & Co., are the proprietors, reflects great credit on the establishment, and will compare favorably with similar work done at older offices in the east."

The book is printed on paper, and with type, manufactured in the State, is purely a Wisconsin affair, and richly worth the price charged for it.

The Union Relief Society.

The meeting on Monday evening, if it was not very large, seemed very much in earnest, so much so that in their very anxiety to do something at once they came near doing nothing. A portion wished a formal organization, with a brief constitution, stating who the officers should be, and what their powers and duties, so that there might be system and accountability; while another portion wished to proceed at once to appoint 8 collectors and 3 distributors, for each ward, and a general Treasurer, and have no further machinery. The propositions were voted up and down several times, with the result that a Constitution, (which we print below) was adopted, and the officers chosen as named yesterday.—The Executive Committee will meet at once, and proceed to district the city, and provide generally for carrying out the measures required for a systematic inquiry into and relief of cases of destitution, and for collecting means and material for the purpose.

The Constitution is unavoidably crowded out to-day.

COMPARATIVE TAXES.—We see that the good people of the wealthy and substantial old city of Albany are complaining grievously at their taxes for this year, amounting to $287,000, against $257,000 last year. That's nothing to Milwaukee. Our tax-payers are called upon to pay $420,000 this year against $225,000 last year.—Albany has a population of some 60,000, and an assessment roll treble that of Milwaukee. Yet her taxes, which are complained of as very heavy, are one-third lighter than ours.

BULLARD'S PANORAMA AT ALBANY HALL.—Nearly ever one is intending to take a look at this work, during the week it remains here, the price of admission, is within the reach of all, being only twenty-five cents, and families and parties of five persons $1,00. It gives its first exhibition to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock.

We have seen the work several times, and can assures our readers that it is all it purports to be:

The Buffalo Courier says of this work:

New York will be always be a subject of interest—it is a picture of the world—it is the commercial capital of the United States, and here we see the mouths of those lines of steamboats and railroads that annually take up and leave millions. The ships whose anchors have fastened their hulkes in the shores of every land, their lie at their piers like war-chargers in their stables. The emigrant fresh from the old world, the sailor, paid off from his last cruise, the boy and girl bounding to school, the hurrying clerk, the perfumed dandy, the dashing equestrain, the funeral and the festival, dogs and horses, broken omnibuses, cursing drivers, citizen and stranger, Turk and Tennessean, Christian, Chinese—all tribes and tongues crowd the streets in New York city, and all these things are to be seen on Bullard's panorama. Go and see it if you have an opportunity, and if you do not find that it is time and money will expended, call on us and we will pay you the same.

We refer the readers to the advertisement of this work of art, in another column of this paper.

THE KELLER TROUPE.—The Keller Troupe were greeted, we were pleased to see, with quite a full house last night. Their tableaux are certainly the most beautiful exhibitions of the kind in the country, and altogether their entertainments are the most interesting that we have ever attended in this city. The programme last night was a repetition of their performance of the previous evening. This evening there will be a change of tableaux. These entertainments are of an instructive as well as interesting in character, and parents would do well to take their families to see them.

EARLY CLOSING.—The following dry goods firms have agreed to the early closing movement:

Wm. L. Shoyer,	Dibble & Stone,
Bradford Brothers,	Hassett & Chapman,
J. N. Bonesteel & Bro.,	Chandler & Jennings,
Parkman & Mudbury,	Lewald & Danenbaum,
P. T. Sergin,	Adler, Newbouer & Co.,
Hoffmann Bros.,	J. W. Griswold,
J. H. Warner,	J. L. Davie,
L. Blake,	Goll & Frank,
P. O. Dyke.

The list includes all of the firms of importance except Mack Bros., who, we presume, will not stand in the way of this excellent movement.

PERSONAL.—The Hon. JOHN F. POTTER, Member of Congress from this District, is at the Newhall House, and leaves to-day for Washington. Mr. POTTER, we venture to predict, will prove himself an able, faithful and reliable Representative.

A THANKSGIVING FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Church, 5th ward, have prepared for a festival to be held at Stamm's Hall on Thursday afternoon and evening, the proceeds of which go towards rebuilding their church, burned last winter. We hope they will realize an abundant return for their enterprise.

FIREMENS' FESTIVAL.—Oregon Engine Co. No. 3, one of the veteran Companies of our Fire Department, give their Annual Ball at the Republican House, to-morrow (Thanksgiving) evening. The price of tickets is so reasonable ($1,00 only), the party is so sure to be a pleasant one; and No. 3 has such substantial claims upon the public for services rendered, that we doubt not they will be fairly "overflowed" for once to-morrow night.

MILITARY BALL.—The Union Guards give their Third Annual Ball this (Wednesday) evening, at Albany Hall. They have taken great pains to ensure the comfort and enjoyment of their guests and we cordially wish them a roomful. They hope to welcome a number of guests for Chicago and elsewhere, and invite military men to appear in uniform.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST FIRE.—Chief Engineer SCHULTZ, informs us that he will himself superintend the sinking of hogsheads in the ice, at the foot of every street, for the use of the engines, as soon as the ice in the river is thick enough.

A FIRST CLASS FAMILY GROCERY.—At the store of Mr. LEDYARD, on East Water Street, (formerly occupied by the State Bank of Wisconsin) housekeepers can find everything in the way of Teas, Coffees, Sugars, Spices, Pickles, Radishes, Wines and Pure Liquors, that they need—and all of the very best.

Common Council Proceedings—Monday Evening.

MAYOR CROSS, PRESIDING.

The Hall was very cold, and the Aldermen in their overcoats and gloves, when Ald. Hadley, President pro tem, called the Board to order.

A number of accounts and memorials were presented and referred to the different committees.

An appeal from Alderman Jennings relative to a sewer which is being constructed to carry off the surface water in Oneida St., was laid upon the table.

Ald. Kuehn, from Finance Committee, reported account of R. Whitehead, for extra allowance as late Clerk. Report adopted.

Mayor Cross here took the Chair

Petition of Wm. Sivyer and others relative to tax certificates, referred to the Board of Survey.

Resolution adopted to issue an order for $52.65 to M. Delaney, for judgment against the city.

After a half hour's delay, caused by one of the Aldermen being frozen out, and during which time the Mayor left, business was resumed, with Ald. Hadley in the Chair.

Resolutions adopted to cancel the certificate of sale of lot 18 in Block 173, 4th Ward.

Resolution adopted allowing each Engine Co. $4 per month for keeping fires in the houses.

The vote concurring with the City Attorney's opinions relative to the alley in Block 182 in the 1st Ward, was re considered but after some discussion again carried.

A resolution was adopted requiring the Gas Co. to repair the sidewalks of Spring St. bridge within 3 days.

An ordinance entitled "an ordinance to regulate the burial of the dead in the city of Milwaukee," was passed.

An ordinance to permanently establish the grade of Vliet St, was laid over according to the rules.

The City Attorney here asked the privilege of speaking to the Council for a few moments. He spoke of the late damages to the city in the case of Gen. McWhorter, whose injuries were caused by the carelessness of graders or street commissioners, and thought it behooved the Council to adopt some measures to provide in the future against such accidents, and at the conclusion of his remarks argued the passage of an ordinance which he had drawn up to regulate the grading of streets and sidewalks. The ordinance was read and laid over.

APPLES FOR THANKSGIVING.—A. W. PARKHURST & Co., at No. 95 East Water street, fruit dealers, have a superb lot of selected apples, just received, and ready to be dispensed to the public, for Thanksgiving, at reasonable rates. Call and see them.

LOST MITTEN.

LOST, yesterday, either on S. side Water street, or Spring or Sycamore bridge, an embossed Otter skin mitten. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same at Sentinel Counting Room.

Steamboat Burnt—Seventy-five Lives Lost

CINCINNATI, Nov 24.

Private despatches in the Commercial give some particulars of the burning of the steamer Rainbow. There were 547 passengers on board, including a large number of coal boatmen on deck. The fire was supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. It is attributed to the deck passengers. The total numbers lost is estimated at 75.

Soon as the fire was discovered, the boat was run ashore, where she was burned to the water's edge. The wind blew a stiff gale, and in a few minutes after the fire broke out the boat was enveloped in flames. The steamer Miunehaha, from Orleans, brought the saved to Memphis, among whom are the following:

Thomas Shaddock, J. M. Cassin, John Maybury and wife, Philadelphia; C. W. Dashrell, C. J. Redman, O. Holmes, Miss D. Harris, L. D. Crockett, H. D. Rowland, of Ill; J. M. Fleming, Mo., D. M. Small, R. J. Cole, Jas. Love, Irwin Potter, Benjamin Hamsdt, Julius Elder, George Burch, Victor Peking, Percy Samuels, David Krieder of Indiana.

The books being destroyed no list of the lost can be furnished. Officers all saved.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

The visit of Sir Wm. Gore Ousley to the President, on Saturday, was one of courtesy merely.—He has not officially informed him of the precise character of his mission.

The War Department designs to send two columns of military into Utah from the Pacific side, one from Oregon, the other from California.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.

I understand from most reliable sources that the Count De Sartiges, the French Minister, has received despatches from Paris announcing the appointment on the part of the imperial Government of a special Minister to General America to arrange with Sir Wm. Gore Ousley, and such person as may be appointed on the part of the U. S Government, the vexed questions pending between the States of Central America and the Great Powers. The diplomat who has been selected by the Imperial Government, is Mr. Felix Belley, a distinguished literateur and politician.

Ratification Meeting in Tammany Hall.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.

There was a large meeting in Tammany Hall last night to ratify the nomination of Fernando Wood for Mayor, and the other charter nominations.—Hon. John Kelley, John Cochrane and Col. Dobeny were the principal speakers. Harmony and enthusiasm prevailed. Another meeting was held in the park at same time, the hall being quite inadequate to accommodate the immense mass. On adjournment of the meeting the crowd proceeded to the St. Nicholas Hotel, where Mr. Wood addressed them.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.

The unemployed laborers who were led on by political committees, had another meeting in Tompkin's Square this morning; some speeches were made and most of the crowd formed in procession and marched to the Park, where they were addressed by Richard Moore, who advised them to go to the Central Park Commissioners' Office, corner of Nassau and Cedar streets, and demand work—that they must not be refused and put off, and must have bread before to-morrow morning.

Collision.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 23.

This morning about 7 o'clock, two passenger cars on the Connellsville R. R., came in collison about a mile from McKeesport.

A passenger by the name of Scott was seriously, if not fatally injured. Several others were also hurt.

ALBANY, Nov. 24

Weather moderating; the canal west of Rochester slightly obstructed by snow and ice, but navigation in that point is unobstructed; the probability is that boats will not go through to Buffalo for a week or 10 days longer.

BUFFALO, Nov. 24.

Thermometer 22 degrees above zero Snow fell with but slight cessation all yesterday, but at 10 P. M. the moon and stars appeared, and there was every prospect of the storm passing away. Snow commenced falling again, however, shortly after 10 o'clock, and is still falling, the wind blowing fresh from the East. The harbor is still open but is full of broken ice.

OSWEGO, Nov. 24.

Weather cold. Two inches of snow fell here last night. A large fleet of wheat laden vessels bound for this port are detained in the Welland Canal by the ice.

Navigation on the canal eastward from this point is uninterrupted.

TROUBLE IN THE BOSTON MONEY MARKET.—It has been found almost impossible to negotiate paper in the street to-day, in consequence of a rumor that the principal member of one of our largest Commission houses, who is also agent for several manufacturing corporations, was using the paper of said corporations, endorsed by the firm, for private speculations.

The rumor has caused much excitement in financial circles, as the gentlemen in question was widely known and highly respected.

MILWAUKEE:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 25.

PROCLAMATION.

FOR a year of singular fruitfulness; for the continued blessing of peace; for immunity from pestilence; for the favoring providence that has cast our lot in this pleasant land; and for all the manifold tokens of the Divine Bounty vouchsafed us, a common sentiment of unfeigned and heartfelt gratitude, must pervade every breast.

From an early period in our colonial history, in most of the States, a day has been designated, annually, for purposes of public thanksgiving and the acknowledgment of the good gifts of the Common Benefactor; and in compliance with this appropriate and time-honored custom, I hereby recommend that Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of November, be thus observed throughout the State.

L. S. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the great seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol in Madison, this sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

By the Governor, COLES BASHFORD.

Conflicting Authorities.

While our immediate neighbor of the News and its political yoke-fellow, the Chicago Times, have astonished their readers by taking ground against the action of the bogus Constitutional Convention in Kansas, the Washington Union, the central organ of the "National Democracy," and official exponent of the views of the Administration, fully endorses that action and commends it to the favor and support of true Democrats everywhere. We quote from the News of the 20th and Union of the 18th, to show how widely these two journals differ in their opinions on this troublesome question. First, hear the News:

We do not lay this document before our readers, believing that it will ever effect anything; one way or another, but simply to post them in current events; for, as the people of Kansas are not, by the Convention which drafted the proposed Constitution, allowed to say whether they will adopt or reject it, it is not to be for a moment supposed that Congress will accept it, and force upon Kansas a Constitution which the people despise.

It will be observed that the "schedule" declares slavery to exist in Kansas, and assumes to take away from the people the power to abolish it! The Constitution also, independently of the clause that it is proposed to submit to the people, would fix Slavery upon the Territory. We will say, however, that Congress cannot accept this Constitution without repudiating the principles and pledges of the Democratic party for the last three years—without being the instruments for consummating a great outrage upon the people of Kansas, and upon the men who stand pledged to the fundamental doctrine that "the people shall rule."

On the side of the people of Kansas, against the framers of the proposed Constitution, is the President and his Cabinet, the entire Democratic press of the North, and a respectable share of the Southern Democratic press.

That, certainly, is plump enough. But the News, however competent to speak for itself, is evidently no authority for "the President and his Cabinet," or "the entire Democratic press of the North." It is clearly mistaken about their views, as the following extracts from the Union article abundantly prove:

The vexed question is settled—the problem is solved—the dread point of danger is passed—all serious trouble about Kansas affairs is over and gone. Kansas comes into the Union on the principle of the great act which organized her and Nebraska in territorial governments. Another star is added to the Republican constellation, not shinning on scenes of terror, conflagration and blood, but lending its light to the peaceful pursuits of a contented and prosperous people.

We lay before our readers this morning the schedule of the new Constitution prepared by the convention at Lecompton. The schedule is that part of the Constitution which provides for the transition from the system which now is to that which is to be, and prescribes in what manner it shall become binding as the fundamental law of the land.

* * * * * * *

The special details of the provisions for taking the sense of the people, so far as we can judge of them at this distance, seem to us admirably contrived for the purpose. If it shall not result in a true expression of the popular wishes, it will be the fault of the people themselves. But we have no right to doubt that the election will be fairly conducted, or that the defeated party, whichever it may be, will cheerfully submit to the will of the majority.

* * * * * * *

We heartily congratulate the Administration on this auspicious event. The President, keeping his eye steadily fixed on the Constitution and the laws, and turning neither to the right hand nor the left, kept directly onward in the path he had marked out for its footsteps. This dignified and consistent policy—a policy which had no motive but the peace and prosperity of the country—will be rewarded with the triumphant success it deserves. He saw the end from the beginning. He never doubted that the truth would prevail. In the midst of all the bickering and contention North and South he hated no jot of heart or hope, but preserved his unruffled serenity and his cheerful faith in the right.

The members of the Convention are entitled to be held in everlasting remembrance for adhering to the great truths of the Democratic creed in the midst of temptations which the virtue of most men would have been too weak to resist.

Our readers will at once discover, from the above extracts, that the News and Union are in direct antagonism on this question, and we regret to add that the authority of the latter, as spokesman for the "National Democratic" Party, far outweighs that of the former. We are forced, therefore, to the conclusion, that "the President and his Cabinet," instead of being "on the side of the People of Kansas," as the News stated, are in league with the Border Ruffians and Slavery Propagandists, and that all the influence of the Administration is to be brought to bear, to "force upon Kansas a Constitution which her people despise," even at the risk of "repudiating the principles and pledges of the Democratic party for the last three years."

THE DISPUTED TOWNS IN JEFFERSON.—A correspondent of the News, in yesterday's paper, gives a brief account of the five towns and two Wards, the returns from which were rejected by the Jefferson County Canvassers. These towns, Ashippun, Lebanon, Emmet, Shields and Portland, and the 5th and 6th Wards of Watertown, were detached from Dodge County and annexed to Jefferson, by an Act passed March 20, 1857. This act, it was contended, was unconstitutional, and so the Supreme Court held; the Constitution providing that "no County with an area of nine hundred square miles, or less, shall be divided, or have any part stricken therefrom, "without submitting the question to a vote of "the people of the county." Now Dodge county, according to the U. S. surveys, contains just nine hundred sections, and if our memory is not at fault, this very provision was engrafted upon the Constitution at the instance of Judge LARABEE, one of the Delegates from Dodge county, who wanted to make sure that his county, at least, should not be shorn of its dimensions except by vote of the people.

The act being unconstitutional, it follows that these towns and wards still belong to Dodge county, and that their returns were improperly sent to the Jefferson County Canvassers and were properly rejected by them. The News' correspondent thus confirms a fact already stated by the Sentinel:

It has been stated that the Board of County Canvassers were "Republicans," and that therefore those towns and wards were thrown out, &c. This is incorrect. The clerk and one of the Justices are Democrats. The board were unanimous as to not canvassing those towns and wards; and of course they were right, for under the decision of the Supreme Court, they had an equal right to canvass any, or all of the other towns in Dodge county.

As the Dodge County Board had adjourned before this decision of the Jefferson County Canvassers became known, these rejected towns could not be counted and returned by them, therefore, they get before the State Board if it must be in the shape of "supplementary" at all, that Board cannot receive or consider returns," which than it can the returns rejected by the Jefferson County Canvassers, but, any more sense, in [illegible] Woods, Wood, [illegible]ard, for different reasons, [illegible]ierce, Brown and other counties, which gave [illegible], in the aggregate, some 75 or 100 Republican majority.

The Kansas Swindle.

We copy below the 9th Section of the so-called Constitution framed by the little squad of fanatics calling themselves the Convention of Kansas, which they propose to have submitted to Congress, and accepted by that body, so that the Territory may come in as a full-fledged State.—It will be seen that it makes John Calhoun, the President of the Convention, an absolute Prince Regent, who is to appoint the judges of election, who are to appoint their clerks. The Regent is to examine the poll lists and count the votes himself. The election is to be held on the 21st of December, and so that there may be no mistake about the adoption of the "Constitution," the ballots are to be cast only in the form "Constitution with Slavery," or "Constitution without Slavery"—a regular heads-I-win—tails-you-lose process, worthy of the palmiest days of Border Ruffianism. Of course, the Free State men will take no part in any such election, and Prince John will have the opportunity of making up as many fifty feet long poll lists from as many Directories as he pleases, up to a million of voters. We presume that "Constitution with Slavery" will carry the day by an overwhelming majority, and the Prince will duly forward the result to Congress, calling upon the Democracy to do their duty. Then comes the tug of war. The following is the section:

SEC. 9. The President of this Convention, or in his absence by reason of his death, resignation or otherwise, the President pro tem. shall by proclamation declare that on the 21st day of December, 1857, at the different election precincts now established and by law in the territory of Kansas, an election shall be held, over which shall preside three judges, to be appointed by the President of this Convention, or, in his absence by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, the President pro tem., at which election the constitution framed by this convention shall be submitted to all the male citizens of the territory of Kansas, over the age of twenty-one years, for ratification, or rejection, in the following manner and form: The voting shall be by ballot. The judges of said election shall cause to be kept two poll books by ——clerks, by them appointed; the ballots cast at said election shall be endorsed, "Constitution with Slavery," or "Constitution without Slavery."

One of said poll books shall be deposited with the President of this convention, or in his absence, by reason of his death, resignation or otherwise, the President pro tem., and the other to be retained by the judges of election and kept open for inspection. The President of the Convention, or in his absence, by reason of his death, resignation or otherwise, the President pro tem., with two or more members of this convention, shall examine said poll book, and if it shall appear upon said examination that a majority of the votes cast at said election be in favor of the "the constitution with slavery," he shall have immediately transmitted the constitution so ratified to the Congress of the United States, for admission into the Union as a sovereign State, under said constitution. But if upon examination of said poll books, it shall appear that a majority of the votes cast at said election be in favor of the "constitution without slavery," then the article providing for slavery shall be stricken from the constitution by the President of this convention, or in his absence, by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, by the President pro tem, and shall no longer exist in the State of Kansas (except that the right of property in slaves now in this territory shall in no manner be interfered with,) and he shall immediately have transmitted the constitution so ratified to the Congress of the United States for admission into the Union as a sovereign State under the said constitution.

THE STATE PAPER IN A PASSION.—The Madison Argus, disappointed and disgusted with the result of the election, takes its revenge by "making faces" and venting abuse at its victorious opponents. It concludes a biographical sketch of the Republican party in the following amiable terms:

The history of the party of which this is the life, has been a public disgrace. They robbed the people of this State of thousands of dollars under the name of relief for Kansas, which filled the pockets of reckless ragamuffins and common swindlers. They begged, lied and stole by wholesale. Their leaders were political camp followers, renegades and soldiers of fortune.—They played on public sympathy, to steal from the public purse. They did everything mean that political tricksters could invent and political scoundrels execute; and they wrought all their villainy, cloaked all their iniquity, hid their meanness of selfish aggrandizement, public robbery and open shame under the name of freedom, philanthropy and religion.

We are rather glad to see that the Argus "takes on so" over the defeat of its hopes and candidates. It really enhances the importance of our Republican victory. "Rail on, Theristes!"

The Official Returns.

The only additional returns received at the Capitol to-day are those of La Crosse county.—The official for Governor was already known—177 for CROSS.

HASTINGS is only 101 behind HABICK, or 76 votes better than RANDALL.

The vote of La Crosse county probably secures the election of HASTINGS (Republican) as State Treasurer. The only two counties remaining to be heard from officially, are Dunn and La Pointe.

OUR BANKS.—By the November statement of the banks, we learn that the three banks of largest circulation in this State, were the following:

Arctic Bank, Eagle Point,	$ 86,000
Lumberman's Bank, Centerville,	169,000
St. Croix River Bank, Brinkerhoff,	150,000
	$395,000

We have no map of the State which enables us to locate these banks. The Bank Comptroller is doubtless advised on this point. According to his statement, their securities deposited at the date above named were as follows:

Arctic Bank:
Missouri 6's,	$130,000
Lumberman's Bank;
Missouri 6's,	121,000
Illinois 6's,	45,000
Virginia 6's,	21,000
Louisiana 6's,	2,000
Tennessee 6's,	9,000
	$198,000
St. Croix River Bank:
Missouri 6's,	$108,000
Illinois 6's,	34,000
Louisiana 6's,	10,000
Virginia 6's,	15,000
Tennessee 6's,	6,000
N. Carolina 6's,	5,000
	$178,000

VOTE OF NEW YORK.—The vote of New York, this fall and last, compares as follows:

	1856.		1857.
Buchanan,	195,878	Tucker (dem),	195,892
Fremont,	276,007	Clapp (Rep),	177,564
Fillmore,	124,622	Putnam (k. n.)	67,284
Total,	596,509		439,690

The decrease in the total vote is 156,819. The Republican vote falls off very nearly a hundred thousand, the K. N. vote 67,390, while the Democratic vote remains stationary. A great many Know Nothings, abandoning all hope of electing their own ticket, voted for the Democratic candidates; but the Republicans, had they polled a full vote, would have beaten the allies easily.

OF WHAT IT WAS COMPOSED.—The Constitutional Convention in Kansas which has just rested from its labors to make a new Slave State, had this partial and ominous composition. Kentucky "raised" 19 of its members, Virginia 8, Tennessee 5, Georgia 6, South Carolina 2, North Carolina 2, Alabama 2, Missouri 3. Total from Slave States 46. From Pennsylvania there were 4, from Ohio 3, from Illinois 1, from Massachusetts [illegible] from New York 1, and from Michigan [illegible] 1, in all from Free States, and all of [illegible], eleven very or National Democratic [illegible] other Pro-Sla-

SUPPLIES FOR [illegible] THE STATE PRISON.—Commissioner McGar[illegible] advertises for proposals for furnishing the following supplies for the State Prison during the ensuing year:

400 cords good sound maple wood.
300 bbls good mess pork.
180 do do beef.
500 sacks, more or less, good fine flour.
150 do do sound corn meal.

Proposals to state how much per cord, per bbl, or per 100 lbs., the articles required will be furnished for, and to be sent in to the Commissioner at Waupun by 10 o'clock, December 10.

A General Indian War Almost Certain.

The difficulty with the Mormons, which has now culminated into war with the Government of the United States, is very much enhanced by what seems to be the certainty that the Mormons have so far tampered with the Indians of the Territory of Utah, and regions adjoining, that they are ready to join in hostilities against the U. S. There is very little doubt that numerous attacks made by the Indians within the past year upon parties of emigrants, merchandise trains &c., have been instigated by the fanatic "Saints." The task of subduing both saints and heathen is to be no small one.

The following, from a Sacramento, California, paper of Oct. 16th, furnishes some idea of what is before us;

Yesterday we had an interview with a gentleman from Carson Valley, who, from intimacy with Mormon families, has some knowledge of their future designs and plans of operation. If his conclusions be correct, not only the settlers east of the mountains, but even the people of this state will have reason to deprecate the exasperation of those American Bedouins. He says that the Mormons of Carson Valley and San Bernardino have sold their cattle and property for nearly nothing, and at the bidding of their chief, have repaired to Salt Lake, with the secret design of re-organizing, arming, equipping, returning, murdering and plundering their Gentile enemies.—They declare that, for every Saint slain by the United States troops, ten Gentile women shall make atonement; that they will first exterminate the troops from the east, then come west, and in predatory bands, allied with Indians, they will ravage the border, rob, plunder, and murder until they shall have replenished the Lord's treasury, and revenged insults put on his chosen people.

Of their ability to execute this threat we have but little doubt. At the order of their leader and prophet, they can muster 15,000 men, armed with the most effective instruments of destruction. They have many thousands of the finest horses, trained to camp service; they have a foundry where cannon and shells are cast; a powder mill and a factory where revolving rifles and pistols are manufactured, equal to those made at Hartford. They have every munition of war and necessary provisions and means of transportation within themselves, and even the women and children are instructed in the use of arms. Add to this their geographical position. To reach Salt Lake, from the east, it is necessary to pass through a canon of twenty-five miles, under hills so steep and rocky that a dozen men could hurl down an avalanche of stone on an approaching caravan, and even in the event of several thousand troops reaching the valley, the besieged with their herds would take to the mountains, and, reinforced by their savage allies, would, in turn, besiege their besiegers, and cut off their supplies until the invaders had started out.

They have, it is said, 20,000 Indian allies, whom they are ready to furnish with arms and horses on an emergency. These Indians are partially instructed in the Mormon religion—enough to make them superstitious in regard to the God of a superior race, yet modifying none of their ferocity.

In view of these things, there can be little doubt that the President, in his message, will ask for a considerable increase of the army, and for authority to call volunteers into service. The former demand is indeed reasonable, were no such troubles in view to the westward, for our little army scarcely furnishes men enough in time of peace to keep the extended line of fortifications from going to decay, to say nothing of acting as a frontier police. It is altogether probable that an army will have to be fitted out, to start over the plains early in the spring, larger and better appointed than any yet gathered by the government for service.

The Bounty Land Business.

The condition of the bounty land business under the acts of 1847, '50, '52 and '55, is full of general interest. Under the act of 1847, there were issued to the 30th ult., 87,715 warrants, covering 13,130,320 acres, of which 79,999 acres were located. Under the act of 1850, 188,994 warrants were issued, covering 13,155,360 acres, of which 164,826 acres were located. Under the act of 1852 11,979 warrants were issued, covering 683,520 acres, of which 9,019 acres were located. Under the act of 1855 214,394 warrants were issued, covering 26,710,670 acres, of which 117,685 acres were located.

This gives a total issue up to the 30th ult., under all the acts of 503,082 warrants, covering 53,689,870 acres.

PAINFUL SUICIDE.—The Hon. ESSEX BLACKMAR, of Newark, Wayne County, New York, committed suicide on the 17th inst., by drowning himself in a well, in the cellar of his own house. Pecuniary embarrassments prompted the rash deed. Mr. BLACKMAR was 51 years of age, a man of good abilities and fair character, and had served the people reputably, both in Congress and the State Legislature. He leaves a large family to mourn his loss.

OPPOSITION TO MAYOR WOOD.—Daniel F. Tieman is the candidate selected by the People's Committee for Mayor of New York, in opposition to Fernando Wood. Mr. Tieman has accepted the nomination. The election comes off next Tuesday, and will be vigorously contested.

THE TIDE TURNING.—It was to be expected that the stringency of the times could not last forever. It is not surprising to see that the factories in all parts of the country are resuming work. This news is now coming in daily, from various manufacturing districts, as the tidings of the stoppage did in the worst days of the panic. The Philadelphia Press of yesterday contains this graphic announcement:

"The cotton mills of Joseph Ripka, Esq., at Manayunk, we understand, will again resume operations to-day. Spencer's Mills, at Germantown, will also resume work in a few days. The extensive cotton mills, near Hestonville, which have recently changed proprietors, are now undergoing through repairs, and will be in full operation in a few days. These mills will give employment to a large number of hands and save many deserving families from suffering during the winter."

The following manufacturing establishments have also resumed operations:

Union Manufacturing Company, at Norwalk, Conn.
Chicopee Mills, Mass.
Rolling and Nail Mills at Fall River.
Massasoit Flour Mills do
American Print Works do
Carolina Mills do
Eddy's Woolen Mills do
The American Print Works do
Pounsbury, Bissell & Co's Works do
Albany Iron Works.
Rensselaer do
Nautick Mills.

Building operations are going foreward actively in Springfield, Mass. Several new blocks of stores are in progress on Main street. The United States Armory, in the same town, employs its full number of men.

The Philadelphia Ledger remarks that the number of persons out of employment in that city, who are willing to work, is not as great as many imagine, and that in no city in the Union is there less suffering than in Philadelphia, while in none are there more institutions established for the relief of the poor.—N. Y. Times

ALMOST A CATASTROPHE, OF THE G. W. RAILWAY.—One of the narrow est escapes we have heard of, says the Hamilton Spectator, befel the emigrant train coming west on the G. W. Railway, on the night between Monday and Tuesday. The train had proceeded without mishap as far as Thorold. There, the bridge over the Welland Canal was swung open just as the train was coming up, to allow of a schooner's passing. The bridge turns on a bed of masonry, below the level of the rails. When the train came up the condition of the rails was so slippery, owing to the falling sleet and snow, that it could not be checked in time, and the locomotive fell off the edge of the bridge on the bed of masonry close to the lock of the Canal. No one was injured; the locomotive itself was not materially damaged; but what an escape was there! Had not the train been under control to the extent it fortunately was, we might have had a repetition of the Desjardin's accident. As it was a masonry suffered most, the bridge being rendered immovable, and special trains having to be sent, to which passengers and goods were transferred.

FROM MALAGA DIRECT.—Yesterday an invoice was received by J. H. Dunham & Co., of a cargo of fruit and nuts on the barque Rambler, now on her way from Malaga, on the Spanish coast, one half of it for themselves, the rest for St. Louis.—This is the first instance of a direct importation of this kind, for this city. The cargo consists of some $24,000 worth of raisins, figs, nard and soft shell almonds, Zante currents, &c. There are about 5,000 kegs of raisins alone. The barque left Malaga on the 15th ult., and was at Gibraltar on the 22d. She will come to New Orleans, the cargo to be re-shipped there on to a steamer.—The invoice came by the last foreign steamer Arctic, and ten days hence the goods may be here.—Chicago Journal.

Chinese Ceremony of Burial.

We copy from the San Francisco Morning Call of the 11th of October, the following description of a Chinese funeral on the 9th of that month:

"The funeral of a Chinese millionaire took place in this city on Friday last, and as much an occurrence is somewhat rare among us, we have taken the trouble to collate and print a short account of ceremonies with which the corps was conveyed to its last home. The name of the deceased was Lui Nui; the body was entered in Lone Mountain Cemetary. About three o'clock on the day of the funeral, [Friday,] the body was placed in a coffin made of pine wood about one inch and a half thick, sealed in various places, and on which there were numerous Chinese characters and the letters F. y. T. 55, (probably a ship-mark, as the remains of some Chinese who die in this city are finally shipped to China.) This office was performed by the near relatives of the deceased, who were dressed in white, those of more distant blood wearing merely a white cotton band around the head.

When everything was ready, the coffin was borne out of Cooper's alley on Pacific street, by six Chinamen, before whom walked six women, whose faces were enveloped with white cotton cloth, and who lamented audibly, in tune with three Chinese musicians performing on a tambourine, cymbals and a reed instrument the squealing of which would elapse the attractions of uncivilized machinery. The funeral procession was composed some ten or twelve carriages, filled with Celestials, the nearest relations to the deceased mounted, (a Chinaman on horseback being a rare thing in San Francisco, although indeed if you it was a common sight,) and two express wagons filled with provisions, consisting of a hog weighing about 150 pounds, a young pig, fruits—consisting of bananas, apples, pears, oranges, melons of various kinds, the rinds carved with Chinese characters—and also numerous plates of rice, chow chow, etc., all of which was deposited on plates in the most fanciful shapes imaginable.—Pots of tea, with cups and saucers, were also provided, to soothe the defunct traveler on his lonely journey; also, Chinese candles, tapers, slow matches and papers with mysterious characters printed thereon. The procession moved to the tune of the band before mentioned, though the oaths of the hucksters who did not obtain a "freight" ill accorded with the "march of death."

To us "outside barbarians" there seems a great inconsistency in providing such an amount of the "stuff of life" for a dead millionaire, while poor live Celestials are left to starve on the sand-hills. But such appears to be the practice of the world, whether in Chinese or European civilization.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL HAND.—Two charming women were one day discussing what it is that constitutes beauty in the hand. They differed in opinion as much as the member whose merits they were discussing. A young gentleman presented himself, and by common consent the question was referred to him. It was a delicate matter. He thought of Paris and the three goddesses. Glancing from one to the other beautiful ends presented to him, which, by the way, he had the cunning to hold for some time in his own, for the purpose of examination, he replied at last, "I give it up, the question is too hard for me; but ask me poor, and they will tell you that the most beautiful hand is the hand that gives."

FROM THE VILLAGE of Whitewater, Walworth County, Wisconsin, between the hours of eleven and five o'clock, October 10 and 11, 1857, one A. Emery. Said Emery took away with him one slate-bed billiard table, nearly new, and fixtures, on which the subscriber had a mortgage of $300. Now, therefore, this is to notify all persons not to purchase said Billiard Table and fixtures, as I shall hold the purchaser responsible for the same.
If any person giving information by letter or otherwise where Emery may be found, will be paid a reward of Five Dollars.
